

Research Results on Public Opinion for the EU for the Republic of Macedonia and the EU membership candidate countries (Standard Eurobarometer)

In accordance with the data published on the official web page of the European Commission, on the part of public opinion research, in the scope of Standard Eurobarometer, whereas the European Commission has the capacity of a contracting party, for the question 'Generally speaking, do you think that membership (of your country) in the European community is a good, bad or neither good nor a bad thing', and the question 'taking everything in consideration, would you say that the Republic of Macedonia (your country) would have any benefit from the membership in the European Community', according to the graphic presentations taken from the web-page of the EC, it is clear that there is a positive attitude on the part of Macedonian citizens, continuously expressed in the period from October 2007 to November 2012, despite showing a decline in support from 76% to 57%.

Generally speaking, do you think that (your country's) membership in the European Community (The Common Market) is..?

Republic of Macedonia (from Oct. 2007 to Nov. 2012)

Note: This table has been taken from http://ec.europa.eu/public\_opinion/cf/index\_en.cfm, by the Secretariat for European Affairs, and corrections have been made to the temporary reference and the constitutional name of the Republic of Macedonia is used in the whole text.