Whereas:

- (a) On 1 August 2006, the Council of the European Union adopted Regulation (EC) No 1085/2006 establishing an instrument for pre-accession assistance (hereafter: the "IPA Framework Regulation"). With effect from 1 January 2007, this instrument constitutes the single legal basis for the provision of financial assistance to candidate countries and potential candidates in their efforts to enhance political, economic and institutional reforms with a view to their eventually becoming members of the European Union.
- (b) On 12 June 2007, the Commission adopted Regulation (EC) No 718/2007 implementing the IPA Framework Regulation, detailing applicable management and control provisions (hereafter: the "IPA Implementing Regulation").
- (c) European Union assistance under the instrument for pre-accession assistance should continue to support the beneficiary countries in their efforts to strengthen democratic institutions and the rule of law, reform public administration, carry out economic reforms, respect human as well as minority rights, promote gender equality, support the development of civil society and advance regional cooperation as well as reconciliation and reconstruction, and contribute to sustainable development and poverty reduction.

European Union assistance for candidate countries should additionally focus on the adoption and implementation of the full EU acquis, and in particular prepare them for the implementation of the European Union's agricultural and cohesion policy.

- (d) The Parties have concluded on 30 October 2007 a Framework Agreement setting out the general rules for cooperation and implementation of the European Union assistance under the Instrument for Pre-accession Assistance.

- (e) The Commission adopted on 3 of December 2010 the revised "Greece-the former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia cross-border programme", fixing the European Union contribution granted to the former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia for the years 2010–2011 under the IPA-Cross-border Co-operation component (hereafter: "the programme"). The part of this programme concerning the former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia is to be implemented by the Commission on a centralised basis.
- (f) It is necessary for the implementation of this programme that the Parties conclude a Financing Agreement to lay down the conditions for the delivery of European Union assistance, the rules and procedures concerning disbursement related to such assistance and the terms on which the assistance will be managed.
